Vocational Rehabilitation (VR)

VR helps job seekers with disabilities prepare for, obtain, maintain and advance in employment.

You may be eligible for VR if you meet all the following requirements:

- You have a physical or mental impairment
- Your physical or mental impairment causes substantial barriers to employment
- You require VR services in order to prepare for, obtain, maintain, or advance in employment
- You could benefit from VR services in terms of getting and keeping a job

Based on individual need and informed choice, eligible individuals of all ages may receive the following types of services:

- Evaluations to explore job interests, skills, and capabilities
- Vocational counseling to help identify a job goal and service needs

See reverse for EOE/ADA disclosures

- Assistance with training or education, if needed to obtain a job
- Help with job interview skills
- Special equipment or technology to address disability-related barriers
- Job coaching to assist with learning new tasks and achieving job stability
